9.4 A Party shall be relieved from liability for a failure to perform its obligations under this Agreement during such period, and to the extent that the due performance thereof by the Party is prevented by reason of any circumstance beyond the control of the Party, which could not reasonably have been foreseen or taken into consideration by the Party prior to entering into this Agreement as well as for which the effects thereof could not reasonably have been avoided or mitigated by such Party. If a Party wishes to invoke a circumstance in accordance with the above it shall give notice to the other Party without unreasonable delay. The time for performance of the relevant obligations shall be appropriately extended, provided however that if performance of a contractual obligation is prevented for a period of three months or more each Party shall be entitled to terminate the Agreement.
